

Believing that leaders are born not made, is like believing Serena Williams came out of the womb hitting a tennis ball. Great leaders, like great athletes, become the best they can be by first learning the skills they need for success and then by relentlessly practicing them.

What Clients Are Saying

"Simply put, Peggy is world class. Her keen insights and high energy combine to make her one of, if not the best executive coaches working today. Even the most senior executives walk away energized and ready to tackle their biggest challenges after Peggy's workshops. She is an absolute treasure."

Lesley Grossblatt,
CEO, the Boardlist

"Peggy has been a phenomenal coach to me and my team. She's insightful, passionate and always finds tangible ways to help 'unlock' what's holding us back from that highest level of performance. I love Peggy's approach to coaching!"

Bill Chandler
Senior Vice President, Global Communications & PR
lululemon

"I can attest to the fact that even the most cynical of audiences will be entertained, engaged, and challenged during Peggy's presentation."

Peggy's Bio

You may have seen Peggy Klaus on national news or popular morning shows. Perhaps you've read her advice columns in the New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Fortune Magazine, Harvard Business Review, and O Magazine.

Peggy is the author of two best-selling books, BRAG! The Art of Tooting Your Own Horn Without Blowing It and The Hard Truth About Soft Skills: Workplace Lessons Smart People Wish They'd Learned Sooner.

As one of America's most sought-after communication and leadership experts, Peggy has spent more than two decades helping thousands of professionals from Fortune 500's, mid-size companies and start-ups succeed in their jobs. She has also dedicated much of her work to the empowerment of women of all ages.

Taking her message from the boardroom to the classroom, she is a featured guest lecturer at universities including Harvard's Kennedy School and School of Public Health, Wharton's Executive MBA Program, U.C. Berkeley's Haas School of Business and the Public Policy Institute at Georgetown University.

Peggy began her career as an actor and classical singer, earning advanced degrees in drama, speech and theater from the London-based Royal Academy of Music and The Drama Studio. From England she moved to Hollywood, working as a producer, director, and talent coach for actors, comedians, musicians and broadcasters in production for Paramount Studios, Warner Brothers, ABC, CBS, and NBC.

When not working, she can be found enjoying the incredible beauty of Santa Fe, New Mexico where she lives.

UNSTOPPABLE

BY PEGGY KLAUS

Imagine sitting with your younger self to share your most valuable personal and professional life lessons. What would they be? How would you guide her to fully emerge with confidence? How would you encourage her to stay motivated, appreciated, and fairly compensated?

For more than 25 years Peggy has been inspiring women of all ages, backgrounds and vocations to ascend to the highest levels in their chosen professions. Yet, despite gains in employment and status, she sees women continuing to struggle with a lack of confidence, resulting in a range of self-sabotaging attitudes and behaviors.

Peggy understands firsthand the effects of cultural biases, self imposed expectations and the 'shadows' that keep women stuck.

Peggy created UNSTOPPABLE, an experiential, strategically targeted, life changing workshop for women who are ready to harness their personal power.

This workshop is Ideal for:

- Senior Executive Leaders
- HR + Culture Leaders + Teams
- Marketing & Communication Leaders
- Community Builders
- Anyone looking to elevate their leadership

UNSTOPPABLE explores a range of life-changing topics including:

- Mastering and activating courage and confidence
- Prioritizing what's most important to you professionally and personally
- Living your purpose and values
- Showing up as your best, authentic self
- Staying unstuck to move forward
- And much more

UNSTOPPABLE can be delivered as an Interactive Keynote, half, full & multi day workshop. A virtual option is also available.
